Charge to the Editorial Board

The Editorial Board has overall responsibility for monitoring the quality and direction of the Journal of College and University Law, with such responsibility to include suggesting topics and authors of Journal articles, reviewing proposed articles and student notes, and reviewing issues of the Journal as they are published. Members of the Editorial Board may be asked from time to time to contribute book reviews or other pieces for publication in the Journal.

Editorial Board Leaders

William Thro, Chair
Marc Cardinalli, Vice Chair
William Hoye and John Robinson, Faculty Editors

Work Plan for 2007 - 2008

1. Suggest possible themes, articles and authors for future Journal issues.
2. Evaluate and provide feedback on individual Journal issues and articles as they appear.
3. Assist Faculty Editors by providing advance review of proposed Journal articles.
4. Begin active planning of NACUA's 50th Anniversary issue of JCUL.
5. Actively pursue articles on model policies and agreements.

- Articles

The most recent issues of the Journal were Volume 34, Nos. 2 and 3, which included the following articles:

• Editorial Board Subcommittees

The Editorial Board has established a subcommittee to begin planning a special issue of the Journal to coincide with the 50th anniversary of the Association. The subcommittee convened via conference call in January and a preliminary list of possible topics and concepts concerning objectives and formats was compiled. From that effort a proposed Table of Contents for the 50th Anniversary Issue has been developed for review by the Editorial Board.

• Electronic Delivery of the *Journal

Currently the Journal is delivered in electronic format on a complimentary basis to all NACUA members. In addition, every NACUA primary representative and designated campus representatives receive a complimentary print copy of each issue of the Journal. In response to a recommendation by the NACUA Board's Work Group on Resources, we are exploring the possibility of moving to exclusively electronic delivery of the Journal for all members, including primary representatives. Members who wish to continue receiving print copies of the Journal could take advantage of the discounted NACUA member rate for Journal subscriptions.
