

Eligibility

Available for licensed attorneys in good standing judged by the NACUA Board of Directors to have a “bona fide interest in the work of the Association and a commonality of interests with the member institutions of the Association.”

Commonality of Interest: Per Article III, Section 8 of NACUA's Bylaws, NACUA's Associate Individual members are required to demonstrate their commonality of interest with NACUA's member institutions. NACUA defines commonality of interest as follows:

- a. is a licensed attorney in good standing;
- b. has a demonstrated interest, experience, and active engagement in identifying, clarifying and resolving legal issues affecting NACUA Member Institutions and advancing the effective practice of higher education attorneys for the benefit of the colleges and universities they serve;
- c. does not represent interests or undertake work that is adverse to the interests of NACUA Member Institutions; and
- d. does not represent any clients or claimants against an institution of higher education unless that client is itself a NACUA Member Institution.

Associate Individual Members must also meet the following criteria:

- Endorsed by the Primary Representative of a Regular Member Institution that the individual currently represents or provides legal advice to, on a more limited basis. Example of representing an Institution on a “more limited basis”:
 - a specialist who handles only occasional matters on an as-needed basis, and
 - does not regularly handle the Institution's legal affairs
- The individual is not eligible to be a representative of a Regular Member Institution or Associate Member Institution.
- The individual is otherwise employed by that Institution (e.g., an attorney in the HR Office at the Member Institution)

Please note: If an applicant is eligible to join under a member institution and/or on behalf of a non-member institution, they are required to do so.

Annual Dues*

Associate Individual Membership: $980

Please do not submit payment until notified by NACUA that your application has been approved.*

Contingency*

Membership is contingent on review and approval by NACUA Staff, Chair of the Committee on Membership and Member Services, and the Board of Directors at their meeting in March, June, or November. After review, memberships that are approved will be activated within 24-48 hours.

2023-2024 Membership Application Associate Individual Membership

Endorsement by NACUA Primary Representative

Associate Individual Membership applications must be endorsed below by a NACUA Primary Attorney Representative of a Regular Member Institution.

Please Note: Applicants who are employed by a member college or university or indicate they represent or provide legal advice to a member college or university should procure the signature of the primary representative of that institution.

As a NACUA Primary Attorney Representative, I hereby support this application with the knowledge and belief that this applicant is currently engaged to represent or provide legal advice to my Institution on a more limited basis or is otherwise employed by my institution, and with the belief that the applicant meets the requirements of Associate Individual Membership. I further believe that the applicant meets the following criteria established by the NACUA Board of Directors: the applicant must be a licensed attorney in good standing; and, as determined by the NACUA Board of Directors, have a "bona fide interest in the work of the Association and a commonality of interest with the member institutions of the Association." This category is not open to persons who are eligible to be a representative of either an institutional member or an associate institutional member, or to lawyers who represent an institution that should be a member of the Association and is not a present member.
